Cost-Benefit Analysis

This data chart is the costbenefit analysis of 4 other cities/counties including Marietta. Here we see the different fees that can arise and how each city/county differs in their pricing. Some fines are more expensive at first glance, others become more expensive over time. There are places that possibly don't have to pay fees due to the fees not existing in another area. This chart shows the differences between each city/county.

Fees Across Camera-Ready Georgia

Feedback and Insurance

- We decided to dive more into the liability portion of creating films within different city limits.
 - We went with the South Georgia region as they do not get much recognition
 - Gwinnett County
 - Bibb County
 - Henry County
 - Coweta County

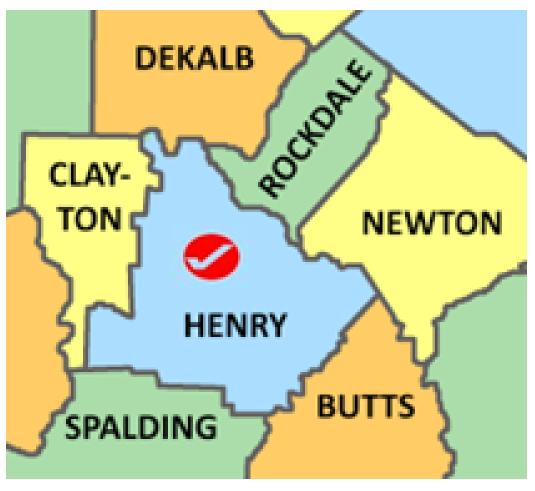

Gwinnett County Findings

- All productions filmed in Gwinnett County (whether in unincorporated Gwinnett or within city limits) are required to have a Gwinnett County Fire Plan Review permit (no fee).
- To the right, is an example of the insurance form needed in Gwinnett County to film any project.
